Month	Course Title	Teacher	Course Description
November	Classroom Management	Jennifer Oliver and Crystal Mercado, Young Audiences	In this class we will explore how to set up your program for success, how to successfully manage the different development levels of your students, and how to set up a successful after school program.
December	Ethics and Reporting	Jennifer Oliver and Crystal Mercado Young Audiences	What is our responsibility as organizations or teachers that work with children? What Ethical code are we held to and what are we responsible to report? What are the abuse reporting laws of California? If you are unsure of the answer to any of these questions, then you must attend this class!
January	Community-Building Games and Ice Breakers	Jennifer Oliver and Crystal Mercado, Teaching Artists	This is an interactive opportunity to share and learn new favorite community building activities. Wear comfortable clothes, bring an activity to share and be prepared to have fun!
February	The MultiLingual Classroom	Crystal Mercado, Young Audiences	This workshop is perfect for teaching artists and arts education organizations who work in San Diego. Learn about the culture of Mexican-American students and practice key Spanish phrases specific to the arts.
March	Connecting Across Art Disciplines	Judith Greer Essex, Expressive Arts Institute of San Diego	Learn more about the language shared between all of the art disciplines. Find ways to activate all of students' senses and make new connections. This class will introduce you to an intermodal process of thinking, teaching and learning in the arts.
April	Lesson Planning	Jennifer Oliver and Crystal Mercado, Young Audiences	Fine tune your lesson planning skills with Young Audiences staff and teaching artists. Together we will focus on developing a cohesive lesson plan with a clear learning thread. Lesson plans that engage and inspire students' creativity while motivating students to discover the intrinsic value of learning.
May	Fundamentals of Arts Assessment	Patti Saraniero, Ed.D Arts Education Consulting and Evaluation	In today's education environment, assessment is often thought of as a four-letter word. This workshop will introduce participants to what assessment is, what it offers for learners and teachers and how and why the arts can be assessed.
June	Community-Building Games and Ice Breakers	Jennifer Oliver and Crystal Mercado, Teaching Artists	This is an interactive opportunity to share and learn new favorite community building activities. Wear comfortable clothes, bring an activity to share and be prepared to have fun!
